

Social Guide of Olivetti Showroom in Venice

My name is

.....

I'm visiting the Olivetti Showroom

On

At

How do I get to the Showroom?

autobus

waterbus

train

car

by foot

1. Introduction

This guide was created to help you visit the Olivetti Showroom in Venice.

In this guide you will see:

- where you can go
- what you can do
- which are the rules.

2. Entrance

To enter the Olivetti Showroom you have to pass through the glass doors.

3. Ticket counter

At the ticket counter you can see a sign with this picture

This means that the people who work here can help you and are ready to answer your questions.

When you are in front of the ticket counter wait in line behind the persons who arrived before you and wait until they all have their tickets.

When there is nobody before you, go and talk to the person behind the desk, who will give you your the ticket.

Here you might meet many people talking.

4. What you can do at Olivetti Showroom

At the Olivetti Showroom you can

- Visit the ground floor and the first floor
- Look at some old typewriters and calculating machines
- Look at the sculpture of Alberto Viani
- Look at the furniture of the Showroom
- Look at Saint Mark Square from the windows at the ground and first floor.

5. Rules

When you walk into the Showroom you must follow these rules

- Walk slowly
- Speak quietly
- You can take photos without flash.

In the Showroom you cannot

- Eat and drink
- Touch the typewriters and calculating machines.

6. Who can help you

There are people who can help you at the Showroom Olivetti.

These people have a badge.

You can ask these people questions.

They are happy that you are visiting the Olivetti Showroom.

7. Stairs

You have to climb the central staircase of the Showroom to go to the first floor.

There is no elevator.

If you have a wheelchair you can visit the ground floor.

8. Shop

At the Olivetti Showroom you can buy notebooks or books that can remind you your visit.

9. Exit

When you finish your visit at the Showroom you can go out the way you came in.

If you enjoyed your visit, you can come back whenever you want.
